

Examples of Starling Poems read from the top right, down

Regarding Chickens, Death (1)

the bow tips	heavy on the	tethered to tip sound the weight	third mist of	the wing clipped of bird dissolving	breath and when	chicken bird burrows

Craigie Hill (3)

	all the more	and he says and she says	i'm going away	don't grieve i love you		but he said